

PROJECTS APPROVED FOR FUNDING IN THE ARTS QUEENSLAND
AUGUST 2003 SMALL GRANT ROUND (UNDER $5,000)

Recipient	Amount approved	Description The grant will be used towards costs to...
Goodna Youth Services	$4,803	engage young people and Elders to build traditional canoes from three different cultural communities.
Laura Kahle Collective	$4,935	promote and record a new body of work by local composers, developed through workshops with industry professionals.
Elizabeth Long	$2,960	participate in a theatrical training course to learn new vocal techniques. The new skills gained will be shared with other Queensland actors, as well as regional and disadvantaged communities, through workshops.
Luke Mallie	$4,568	develop a new body of contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander works to be exhibited in Artspace Mackay.
Judith Parrott	$4,857	develop and present a multi-arts exhibition exploring the importance of community and cultural identity for Bolivians at the World Beat Festival at the Brisbane Powerhouse in 2004.
Sarah Ryan	$4,999	print and mount a new series of digital lenticular photographs, using a unique imaging technique, for a solo exhibition at the Institute of Modern Art.
Theatre ACTIV-8!	$4,999	create a new collaborative work that applies the music video medium to theatre while deconstructing the power of the news media.
Total	$32,139	