

ARTS QUEENSLANDS JUNE SMALL GRANT ROUND RECIPIENTS

The successful recipients of the latest Small Grants round who share in $36,321 towards the costs of their projects:

Cairns Potters Club Inc, Cairns, $4,772 to celebrate the Cairns Potters Club's 30th anniversary with a ceramic art exhibition entitled Top Pots and an accompanying exhibition catalogue.

Coolum Kite Festival Inc, Coolum, $4990 for Flying Sound Garden, an interactive exhibition of sculpture and wind-powered instruments and kites, as part of the 2004 Coolum Kite Festival.

Doch, Wilston, $4620 to produce a full-length CD recording of the band Doch.

Matthew James Dwyer, Bardon, $3592 to participate in an international exhibition of artworks in Shanghai Art Gallery.

Injino Community Council, Injino, $4999 to create a mobile stage and develop a band to encourage the participation of young people in performances at community events.

Moira Tan, Mooloolah, $3350 to study at the prestigious Jacques Lecoq International Theatre School in Paris.

Marissa Treichel, Dutton Park, $4999 to create a new work by emerging performing artists entitled Touchy Subjects.

Melissa Waters, Mareeba, $4999 to showcase the art of seven Queensland and seven Indian contemporary artists at Kick Arts, Centre of Contemporary Arts, Cairns.