

Australia Business Arts Foundation

Two workshops presented by
Sue Roff
National Manager Cultural Development

Australia Business Arts Foundation

Abaf

We promote private sector support for the arts through three programs:

Partnering, Volunteering and Giving

The Tank Stream Quartet performing at BHP Billiton's Cannington mine

Volunteering

Abaf

Winners KPMG adviceBank Award 2007

Queensland Writer's Centre and Theodora Le Souquet

Giving

Abaf

Australia Cultural Fund

A unique facility to raise funds for cultural organisations and individual artists.

Australia Cultural Fund

In this session we will:

- Answer your questions about the Australia Cultural Fund and how you can use it to offer a tax deduction to donors (even without DGR!)
- Get you started with fundraising ideas
- Help you learn from real-life case studies

Partnering

Abaf

Arts Connecting Communities – a program for local councils designed to encourage and facilitate arts business partnerships.

Arts Connecting Communities

Abaf

In this session we will:

- Explain how the Arts Connecting Communities program works at a local level
- Look at some of the ways business and arts can partner
- Hear from a real-life case study who developed an ongoing relationship as a result of this program

See you there!

The logo consists of a yellow diagonal bar with the text 'AbaF' written vertically in white.

- Informal sessions
- Questions invited and encouraged
- Opportunity to follow up with one-on-one meetings with AbaF State Manager
- Special AbaF publications offer for conference participants!